Delfina Duarte

21 YEARS OLD

Junín (Buenos Aires, Argentina)

I am a technology enthusiast seeking a role as a junior web developer. My commitment to the industry is reflected in my continuous focus on front-end development, where I have acquired strong skills in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript.

My pursuit goes beyond the mere application of knowledge; I am looking for a dynamic environment where I can contribute with my passion for web programming while continuing to learn and grow professionally. I am eager to be part of a team where I can apply my skills and actively contribute to the exciting world of web development.
